

STAIRWAY TO YOUR FUTURE – CHOOSE THE ENTRY LEVEL THAT IS RIGHT FOR YOU!

STAYING IN STEP WITH THE BUILDING INDUSTRY

Level One

Short-term on-the-job-training – up to 1 month (without prior experience)

Level Two

Moderate- term on-the-job-training – 1 to 12 months (without prior experience)

Level Three

Long-term on-the-job-training – more that 12 months (without prior experience)

Level Four

High School program – 2-years with hands on building experience

Level Five

Apprenticeship Training – 2 to 6 years classroom & on-the-job-training

Level Six

Community College/Technical School – 2-year program

Level Seven

College/University – 4-year program

Entry Level (without high school experience)

Pre-Apprenticeship/Short/Moderate/Long-term Training (Trainings range between 1 and 12+ months )

Entry Level
High School Program

Apprenticeship Level

Sample Requirements & Course Work

- 3-6 years hands-on experience
(varies by occupation)
- High school diploma or GED
- At least 2,000 hours supervised on-the-job & 144 class hours
- 40-hour work week

- Blueprint Reading
- English
- Math
- Safety

Certificate Level
Community College
Technical School

Sample
Course Work

- Introduction to Construction
- Building Codes and Inspections
- Materials Testing
- Project Scheduling
- Estimating
- Basic Computer Drafting
- Introduction to Surveying
- Blueprint Reading
- Plumbing Systems

